

What is my reaction to people who are different from me?

View them as entertaining, as oddities, like circus exhibits

Ridicule them. (I'm the standard. If you're different, there's Something wrong with you.)

Use them for my benefit.

Hurt them, kill them, enslave them

Us/them mentality

Accept them as equals

Love them

Act/work for their benefit, not just for my own
(Their greatest benefit is to know Jesus.)
